

One day our teacher had gotten sick, but an alien was a substitute! First, he told us to do the Alien Dance, but I didn't know how. The day was wacky, strange, deranged, exciting, and inappropriate for children under two. Unfortunately, two children that were two years old happened to be only two classes away and heard every single word of it. I think the day was silly and fun.

Mrs. Barbee's Third Grade